David McCullough, acclaimed historian and author, will sign his book, Truman, immediately following his keynote address during the general session luncheon on Friday, Sept. 20.

McCullough has been widely acclaimed as a “master of the art of narrative history,” “a matchless writer.” He is twice winner of the Pulitzer Prize, twice winner of the National Book Award, and has received the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation’s highest civilian award.

The life of Harry S. Truman is one of the greatest of American stories, filled with vivid and dramatic events. In this riveting biography, David McCullough not only captures the man—a more complex, informed, and determined man than ever before imagined—but also the turbulent times in which he rose, boldly, to meet unprecedented challenges. The last president to serve as a living link between the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries, Truman’s story spans the raw world of the Missouri frontier, World War I, the powerful Pendergast machine of Kansas City, the legendary Whistle-Stop Campaign of 1948, and the decisions to drop the atomic bomb, confront Stalin at Potsdam, send troops to Korea, and fire General MacArthur. Drawing on newly discovered archival material and extensive interviews with Truman’s own family, friends, and Washington colleagues, McCullough tells the deeply moving story of the seemingly ordinary “man from Missouri” who was perhaps the most courageous president in our history.

Pre-order your book by Friday, Sept. 13 to guarantee a copy. Pre-ordered books will be available for pick up beginning at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 20, at the Rainy Day Books table in the Century Foyer, Ballroom Level of The Westin.
