Pushing the Envelope through Health Innovation
Friday, Sept. 20 | 9–11 a.m.
Sponsored by the CSG Health Public Policy Committee
Session will take place at the University of Kansas Cancer Center

During the CSG National Conference, you are invited to participate in the Pushing the Envelope through Health Innovation session scheduled for Friday, Sept. 20. The CSG Health Public Policy Committee will conduct business during this session.

Buses will depart promptly at 8:30 a.m. from the south side of Pershing in front of the Westin.

The session will be limited to the first 100 participants. Forms must be received by noon, Thursday, Sept. 19.

Attendee Information
Please print.

Name ____________________________________________

Title ____________________________________________

Organization ______________________________________

State ____________________________________________

Please return this form to Jessica Clay at jclay@csg.org or by fax to 859-244-8117.
Completion of this form is required in order to attend the session.