

Emily Curran, M.P.H.

Center for Health Insurance Reforms, Georgetown University

Curran, a Research Fellow and faculty member, focuses her work on private health insurance and the effects of the Affordable Care Act, with emphasis on the implementation of the federal and state health insurance exchanges. Curran has also worked at Avalere Health, where she supported health plan clients in responding to health insurance marketplace reforms.