

Robert Childs, executive director

North Carolina Harm Reduction Coalition

Childs has directed the NC Harm Reduction Coalition since 2009. His career has specialized in syringe exchange, harm reduction, drug policy reform, community-based overdose prevention utilizing naloxone, law enforcement assisted diversion, and law enforcement occupational safety and drug overdose response. Childs has been involved in legislative campaigns on syringe service programs and overdose prevention in North Carolina, Georgia and South Carolina.