

Luncheon Program

Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC)

Speaker Bio

Tamara Little

Tamara Little has been an Assistant Attorney General in Ohio for 18 years. In the Executive Agencies Section of the Attorney General's Office, Mrs. Little represented the Adjutant General's Department, the Ohio National Guard, and the Ohio Emergency Management Agency for 16 years, and currently represents the Ohio Emergency Management Agency. Mrs. Little graduated from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in English Education in 1980 and received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Toledo in 1983. She is currently serving her fifth term as Chair of the National Emergency Management Association's (NEMA's) Legal Counsel Committee and as such, provides assistance to the EMAC Executive Task Force. In addition, Mrs. Little is a trained assessor and assessment team leader for the Emergency Management Accreditation Program (EMAP) and currently sits on the Assessor Training Subcommittee.

Angela Copple

Angela Copple has been the National EMAC Coordinator for the National Emergency Management Agency, an affiliate of the Council of State Governments, for about 1.5 years. Prior to joining NEMA, Ms. Copple managed both an investment fund for the State of Kentucky and an entrepreneurship program for technology start-up companies. Ms. Copple also owns her own web site design company which caters to select clientele. Ms. Copple's background is diverse with degrees in biology, philosophy, and a CLS(p) in molecular genetics. Angela can be reached at: acopple@csg.org.