Denying Professional and Commercial Licenses to People Who are Unlawfully Present in the United States

Subject to exemptions and definitions found in federal law, this Act requires local governments and divisions, boards, and agencies of the department of regulatory agencies to issue and renew licenses, permits, registrations, certificates, charters, memberships, or similar authorizations to a person only if the person is lawfully present in the United States and to deny any such authorization, including a renewal thereof, upon determining that the person is unlawfully present in the United States. It also requires a person to prove his or her identity with a secure and verifiable document.

(Title, enacting clause, etc.)

Section 1. [Short Title.] This Act shall be cited as “An Act to Deny State Licenses and Certain Benefits to People Who are Unlawfully Present in the United States.”

Section 2. [Applications for Licenses - Authority to Suspend Licenses - Rules.]

(a) Every application by an individual for a license issued pursuant to the authority set forth in [insert citation] by any division, board, or agency of this state shall require the applicant’s name, address, and social security number. Subject to the exemptions found in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621 (c) (2), to the extent that any such license constitutes a professional license or commercial license regulated by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621, such division, board, or agency may issue or renew any such license to an individual only if the individual is lawfully present in the United States, and shall immediately deny any such license or renewal thereof upon determining that the individual is unlawfully present in the United States. The individual shall prove his or her identity with a secure and verifiable document, as that term is defined in [insert citation]. The division, board, or agency shall not sell or use for any purpose other than those specified in law the information contained in the secure and verifiable document, and shall keep such information confidential unless disclosure is required by law; except that nothing in this paragraph (a) shall be construed to limit public access to records that are available for public inspection pursuant to [insert citation].

(b) For purposes of this section, an individual is unlawfully present in the United States if the individual is an alien who is not:

(i) a qualified alien as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1641;

(ii) a nonimmigrant under the “Immigration and Nationality Act,” Federal Public Law 82-414, as amended; or

(iii) an alien who is paroled into the United States under 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1182 (d) (5) for less than one year.

(c) This section shall be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.

Section 3. [General Regulations.]
(a) Subject to the exemptions found in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621 (c) (2), to the extent that a license, permit, certificate, or other authorization to conduct business issued by a county constitutes a professional license or commercial license regulated by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621, a county may issue such authorization to an individual only if the individual is lawfully present in the United States, and shall immediately deny any such authorization or renewal thereof upon determining that the individual is unlawfully present in the United States. The individual shall prove his or her identity with a secure and verifiable document, as that term is defined in [insert citation]. A county shall not sell or utilize for any purpose other than those specified in law the information contained in the secure and verifiable document, and shall keep such information confidential unless disclosure is required by law; except that nothing in this paragraph (a) shall be construed to limit public access to records that are available for public inspection pursuant to [insert citation].

(b) For purposes of this section, an individual is unlawfully present in the United States if the individual is an alien who is not:
   (i) a qualified alien as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1641;
   (ii) a nonimmigrant under the “Immigration and Nationality Act,” Federal Public Law 82-414, as amended; or
   (iii) an alien who is paroled into the United States under 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1182 (d) (5) for less than one year.

(c) This section shall be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.

Section 4. [Powers to Regulate Businesses.]
(a) Subject to the exemption as found in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621 (c) (2), to the extent that any license, permit, certificate, or other authorization to conduct business issued by a municipality constitutes a professional license or commercial license regulated by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621, the governing body of a municipality may issue such authorization to an individual only if the individual is lawfully present in the United States, and shall immediately deny any such authorization or renewal thereof upon determining that the individual is unlawfully present in the United States. The individual shall prove his or her identity with a secure and verifiable document, as that term is defined in [insert citation]. A municipality shall not sell or utilize for any purpose other than those specified in law the information contained in the secure and verifiable document, and shall keep such information confidential unless disclosure is required by law; except that nothing in this paragraph (a) shall be construed to limit public access to records that are available for public inspection pursuant to [insert citation].

(b) For purposes of this subsection, an individual is unlawfully present in the United States if the individual is an alien who is not:
   (i) a qualified alien as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1641;
   (ii) a nonimmigrant under the “Immigration and Nationality Act,” Federal Public Law 82-414, as amended; or
   (iii) an alien who is paroled into the United States under 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1182 (d) (5) for less than one year.

(c) This section shall be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.

Section 5. [Severability.] [Insert severability clause.]

Section 6. [Repealer.] [Insert repealer clause.]

Section 7. [Effective Date.] [Insert effective date.]
