

Suitability in Annuity Transactions

This Act directs that in recommending to a consumer the purchase of an annuity or the exchange of an annuity that results in another insurance transaction or series of insurance transactions, the insurance producer, or the insurer when no producer is involved, must have reasonable grounds for believing that the recommendation is suitable for the consumer on the basis of the facts disclosed by the consumer as to the consumer's investments and other insurance products and as to the consumer's financial situation and needs.

The Act requires that before the execution of a purchase or exchange of an annuity resulting from a recommendation, an insurance producer, or an insurer when no producer is involved, shall make reasonable efforts to obtain information concerning the consumer's financial status; the consumer's tax status; the consumer's investment objectives; and other information used or considered to be reasonable by the insurance producer, or the insurer when no producer is involved, in making recommendations to the consumer.

22 Section 3. [Definitions.] As used in this Act:

23 1. "annuity" means a fixed annuity or variable annuity that is individually solicited,
24 whether the product is classified as an individual or group annuity.

25 2. “insurance producer” means a person required to be licensed under the laws of this state
26 to sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance, including annuities.

27 3. “insurer” means a company required to be licensed under the laws of this state to 28 provide insurance products, including annuities.

29 4. “recommendation” means advice provided by an insurance producer, or an insurer when 30 no producer is involved, to an individual consumer that results in a purchase or exchange of an 31 annuity in accordance with that advice.

32
33 Section 4. [Duties of Insurers and Insurance Producers.]

34 1. In recommending to a consumer the purchase of an annuity or the exchange of an 35 annuity that results in another insurance transaction or series of insurance transactions, the 36 insurance producer, or the insurer when no producer is involved, must have reasonable grounds for 37 believing that the recommendation is suitable for the consumer on the basis of the facts disclosed
38 by the consumer as to the consumer’s investments and other insurance products and as to the 39 consumer’s financial situation and needs.

40 2. Before the execution of a purchase or exchange of an annuity resulting from a 41 recommendation, an insurance producer, or an insurer when no producer is involved, shall make 42 reasonable efforts to obtain information concerning:

43 a. the consumer’s financial status;

44 b. the consumer’s tax status;

45 c. the consumer’s investment objectives; and

46 d. other information used or considered to be reasonable by the insurance producer,
47 or the insurer when no producer is involved, in making recommendations to the consumer.

48 3. a. Except as provided under subdivision b, neither an insurance producer nor an 49 insurer when no producer is involved has an obligation to a consumer under subsection 1 related
50 to a recommendation if a consumer:

51 (1) refuses to provide relevant information requested by the insurer or 52 insurance producer;

53 (2) decides to enter into an insurance transaction that is not based on a 54 recommendation of the insurer or insurance producer; or

55 (3) fails to provide complete or accurate information.

56 b. An insurer or insurance producer’s recommendation subject to subdivision a
57 must be reasonable under all the circumstances actually known to the insurer or insurance
58 producer at the time of the recommendation.

59 4. a. An insurer shall ensure that a system to supervise recommendations that is 60 reasonably designed to achieve compliance with this Act is established and maintained by 61 complying with subdivisions c through e, or shall establish and maintain such a system, including:

62 (1) maintaining written procedures; and

63 (2) conducting periodic reviews of its records that are reasonably designed 64 to assist in detecting and preventing violations of this Act.

65 b. A general agent and independent agency shall adopt a system established by an 66 insurer to supervise recommendations of its insurance producers that is reasonably designed to 67 achieve compliance with this Act, or shall establish and maintain such a system, including:

68 (1) maintaining written procedures; and

69 (2) conducting periodic reviews of records that are reasonably designed to 70 assist in detecting and preventing violations of this Act.

71 c. An insurer may contract with a third party, including a general agent or 72 independent agency, to establish and maintain a system of supervision as required by subdivision a
73 with respect to insurance producers under contract with or employed by the third party.

74 d. An insurer shall make reasonable inquiry to ensure that the third party
75 contracting under subdivision c is performing the functions required under subdivision a and shall 76 take action as is reasonable under the circumstances to enforce the contractual obligation to 77 perform the functions. An insurer may comply with its obligation to make reasonable inquiry by 78 doing all of the following:

79 (1) the insurer annually obtains a certification from a third-party senior
80 manager who has responsibility for the delegated functions that the manager has a reasonable basis
81 to represent, and does represent, that the third party is performing the required functions; and

82 (2) the insurer, based on reasonable selection criteria, periodically selects
83 third parties contracting under subdivision c for a review to determine whether the third parties are 84 performing the required functions.

85 (3) the insurer shall perform those procedures to conduct the review that are 86 reasonable under the circumstances.

87 e. An insurer that contracts with a third party pursuant to subdivision c and that 88 complies with the requirements to supervise in subdivision d has fulfilled its responsibilities under 89 subdivision a.

90 f. An insurer, general agent, or independent agency is not required by subdivision a 91 or b to:

92 (1) review, or provide for review of, all insurance producer solicited
93 transactions; or

94 (2) include in its system of supervision an insurance producer's
95 recommendations to consumers of products other than the annuities offered by the insurer, general
96 agent, or independent agency.

97 g. A general agent or independent agency contracting with an insurer pursuant to 98 subdivision c shall promptly, when requested by the insurer pursuant to subdivision d, give a
99 certification as described in subdivision d or give a clear statement that it is unable to meet the 100 certification criteria.

101 h. A person may not provide a certification under paragraph 1 of subdivision d 102 unless:

103 (1) the person is a senior manager with responsibility for the delegated 104 functions; and

105 (2) the person has a reasonable basis for making the certification.

106 5. Compliance with the National Association of Securities Dealers conduct rules pertaining 107 to suitability satisfies the requirements under this section for the recommendation of variable
108 annuities. However, nothing in this subsection limits the [insurance commissioner's] ability to 109 enforce the provisions of this Act.

110
111 Section 5. [Mitigation of Responsibility - Penalty.]

112 1. The [commissioner] may order:

113 a. an insurer to take reasonably appropriate corrective action for a consumer
114 harmed by the insurer's, or by its insurance producer's, violation of this Act;

115 b. an insurance producer to take reasonably appropriate corrective action for a
116 consumer harmed by the insurance producer's violation of this Act; and

117 c. a general agency or independent agency that employs or contracts with an 118 insurance producer to sell, or solicit the sale of, annuities to consumers, to take reasonably
119 appropriate corrective action for a consumer harmed by the insurance producer's violation of this 120 Act.

121 2. Any applicable penalty under this Act for a violation of this Act may be reduced or 122 eliminated, according to a schedule adopted by the [commissioner], if corrective action for the 123 consumer was taken promptly after a violation was discovered.

124
125 Section 6. [Recordkeeping.]

126 1. Insurers, general agents, independent agencies, and insurance producers shall maintain 127 or be able to make available to the [commissioner] a record of the information collected from the 128 consumer and other information used in making the recommendations that were the basis for 129 insurance transactions for [ten years] after the insurance transaction is completed by the insurer.
130 An insurer is permitted, but is not required, to maintain documentation on behalf of an insurance
131 producer.

132 2. Records required to be maintained by this Act may be maintained in paper,
133 photographic, microprocess, magnetic, mechanical, or electronic media, or by any process that 134 accurately reproduces the actual document.
