- Workplace Care and Supports
- Underserved Rural, Racial and Ethnic Communities
- Behavioral Health Workforce Shortages & State Resource Systems

Behavioral Health Workforce Shortages – Policy Principles

- Improve the quality, transparency and availability of workforce data.
- Strengthen and diversify high-quality behavioral health care education and training pathways.
- Remove barriers to entry into the mental and behavioral health workforce.
- Increase retention by designing peer support models and programs; offering trauma-informed education; considering job-quality factors to avoid burnout; and supporting workforce satisfaction, well-being and resilience.

Effective and Sustainable Long-Term Care Task Force (2022)

- One legislative branch and one executive branch official from eight participating states:
 - Arizona, Georgia, Hawaii, Indiana, Minnesota, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia
- Eight meetings of the full Task Force
- State-specific conversations for each state
- Development of Long-Term Care Policy Guide

Long-Term Care Focus Areas

- Optimize American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding for Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS) and Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS).
- Address state regulation of providers and services as states continue to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Promote economic recovery by revitalizing the direct care workforce and supporting family caregivers.

Revitalizing the Direct Care Workforce and Supporting Family Caregivers

Section 3: Direct Care Workforce and Family Caregivers

- Challenges: Compensation, Training, Career Advancement and Economic Mobility, Worker Supply and Demand, Workforce Data, Structural Inequities
- State Strategies: Increasing Compensation, Employment Supports, Enhancing Training and Education, Facilitating Career Advancement, Expanding the Pipeline, Data Collection and Monitoring, Support for Family Caregivers
- State Case Study: New York's increase in the home care worker minimum wage

National Center for State Long-Term Care Workforce Policy (2023) Project Summary

- National Long-Term Care Workforce Network
- National Online Resource Center
- State Technical Assistance Services

Long-Term Care Workforce Network

- Expanded group of state policymakers from legislative and executive branches from all 50 states, U.S. territories
- Stakeholder groups in the long-term care space
- 10 virtual convenings through December
- Focus: information sharing, collaboration, relationship building
- Focus: state-level policy, federal-level barriers
- Focus: interbranch collaboration, cross-state cooperation

Moving Forward Coalition

- Released action plans in July: <https://movingforwardcoalition.org/>
- Phase 4: Engagement, testing and promotion (through June 2024)
- Workforce-related action plans:
 - Improving CNA Wages and Support through Medicaid Incentive Payment Programs
 - Expanding CNA Career Pathways

Dementia Care Workforce

- 20 states have been termed “dementia neurology deserts.”
- 12 states will need to increase the number of practicing geriatricians at least five-fold to care for those projected to have Alzheimer’s dementia in 2050.
- 49% of nursing home residents have a form of dementia.
- Statewide response required: public health, crisis response, licensure, workforce, Medicaid, aging and human services.
- Care navigation on dementia-care teams

Nursing Home Clinician Workforce

- Long-term care is significant component of state budgets
- Largest chunk of this money should go to the people delivering the care.
- Staffing and trained workforce are key to quality care.
- Shortage of labor across the board
- Poor quality care costs more.
- Opportunities to impact cost and quality of life.
- Role of the Medical Director is key, as are attending physicians and advance practice providers.

Home Care Workforce

- Policy challenges include wages, schedule variability and immigration.
- Elevating the profession is an important goal.
- Recommendations include:
 - standardizing training
 - embracing technology
 - evaluating impact of benefit cliffs

Building Career Pathways

- Hawaii: Collaborative, cross-sector effort in 2022 led to the creation of the CNA-to-LPN Glidepath, designed to strengthen the LPN workforce.
 - Enables working CNAs to pursue LPN education while remaining employed in the long-term care CNA workforce.
 - Serves as recruitment tool.
 - Inaugural January 2023 class, comprised of 32 students across 4 cohorts on 3 islands, has reached the halfway mark.
 - Outcomes will be determined upon completion of the program in December.
 - Initial enrollee data suggests the glidepath is effectively reaching its target audience.
- Other States Working on Career Pathways: Arizona, Colorado, Maine, Michigan, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Tennessee, Washington, Wisconsin.

Expanding Career Pathways

- Next Wednesday, September 27 at 3pm EDT
 - Natasha Bryant, LeadingAge LTSS Center @UMass Boston
 - Kevin Coughlin, Wisconsin Division of Medicaid Services.
 - Elizabeth (Betsy) White, APRN, PhD, Brown University School of Public Health; Moving Forward Coalition's Workforce-Focused Committee

National Online Resource Center

- Hub for information exchange and resource sharing
- State policy options identified in the policy guide
- State-specific resources and available tools
- State and national long-term care policy reports
- Reports from workforce policy experts and stakeholder groups
- Key state legislation
- New resources developed by CSG and its partners
- Analysis of new resources, developments by CSG staff
- Information on long-term care funding opportunities
- State and federal contacts on long-term care workforce policy

State Technical Assistance Services

- Five technical assistance site visits to states
- Technical assistance will consist of:
 - Instruction on existing state policies and programs
 - Discussion of best practices and future opportunities
 - Opportunities to connect with national, state and local subject-matter experts and stakeholder groups
 - State action planning

State Technical Assistance Services

- Eligibility: Any state elected or appointed official can request a technical assistance site visit event from CSG and its partners. Requests from legislative or executive branch staff may be accepted under some circumstances.
- Each request will be considered in relation to scheduling, travel costs, member engagement and other factors.
- State official (or office) should have the capacity to:
 - Bring a bipartisan, bicameral, interbranch group of policymakers to the table
 - Coordinate promotion and scheduling
 - Help identify the focus of the discussion, appropriate subject-matter experts, stakeholder groups
 - Engage in the development of a state action plan with the support of CSG staff, partners and stakeholders.
 - Provide a suitable venue (committee hearing room, etc.) for the event.

Thank You!
